Smiles at the Tour of Napa
Message from the President

New Meeting Location! During the football season we will be meeting at Kelly’s house, 19 Hahnemann Lane. 6:30 mixer and meeting from 7:00 – 8:00. This is to avoid the conflict of Monday Night Football while keeping the meetings on the second Monday of each month.

About the Tour:

Mark Twain once quipped to a reporter “The reports of my death are greatly exaggerated.” A rumor was going around that he had died. He wanted to let them he was still alive.

We can say the same about the Tour of the Napa Valley. It's alive!!! As I came over the crest of the parking lot in my rental truck yesterday afternoon (coming back from Pope Valley), the scene unfolding was astounding. The colorful tents surrounding the picnic grounds, and the throngs of people interacting, looked like a fair or festival was happening.

High energy music was playing, the DJ was stoking up the crowd, our guests seemed happy and were having fun. Eagles members were having fun too.. lots of smiles, joking and sharing stories about their day. I even saw a couple of Eagles dancing together!

Guests were shopping with vendors and biting their nails for the results of the Silent Auction. There truly was "a party going on right here." It's hard to remember the January member meeting where we discussed possibly ending this event, and putting it out of it's misery once and for all. Very glad you decided to give it one more try.

Under the creative leadership of Linda McFeeley and the tremendous response from volunteers (old and new) plus new partners from outside the club, the TNV lives on.

The final numbers for revenue and ridership should be impressive, and will certainly buck the trend for cycling events this year.

When something is dying, you throw everything you can think of at it to resuscitate the patient. Survival is at stake. Linda and her team did just that, and it worked. Her entrepreneurial strategy of trying new things, observe the results and fine tune for the future paid off big time.

Linda provided the creative leadership but you provided the energy, muscle, persistence, sweat, experience and everything else it takes for a volunteer event to succeed. Enjoy your success.

Chris Lougee, President.

We had another successful Tour of Napa Valley thanks to all of the great people that came out to volunteer, and ride. A big thank you to Linda McFeely and the rest of the club members who helped organize this ride. It takes a small village to put on our event, but it is worth it when you see all of the smiling faces of our riders.
